PREMISES

Apartment 1204, Tower B, Marina Crest Residences, Lusail Marina District, Doha (Unit ID MC-B-1204), a two-bedroom apartment of approximately 118 sqm, together with parking bay B-77.

1. Definitions

In this Lease Agreement, unless the context otherwise requires, the following expressions shall have the following meanings: "Building" means Marina Crest Residences Tower B, Lusail Marina District, Doha, State of Qatar, including all common structures, building envelope, foundation, roof, and associated grounds; "Common Areas" means the entrance halls, corridors, elevators, stairways, landscaped outdoor facilities, visitor parking zones, gymnasiums, swimming pools, and other shared spaces situated within the Building; "Premises" means Apartment 1204 situated on the twelfth floor of Tower B together with allocated parking bay B-77, including all fixtures, internal fittings, doors, windows, and installations therein; "Authority" means the Ministry of Municipality, the General Electricity and Water Corporation (Kahramaa), the Ministry of Interior, the Civil Defence, or any other competent governmental authority in the State of Qatar.

"Working Day" means any day other than a Friday, Saturday, or official declared public holiday in the State of Qatar; "Commencement Date" means 1 February 2027, being the first day of the lease term specified herein; "Expiry Date" means 31 January 2030, being the final day of the lease term specified herein; "Rent" means the monthly and annual consideration payable by the Tenant to the Landlord for the occupation and enjoyment of the Premises; "Security Deposit" means the refundable financial deposit lodged by the Tenant as security for the due performance of covenants under this Lease; "Service Charges" means the recurring costs of building management, security, janitorial cleaning, and communal air conditioning; and "Permitted Use" means quiet private residential occupation exclusively for the Tenant and immediate family members.

"Handover Condition" means the clean, fully functional decorative and physical state of the Premises as documented in the entry inventory signed at the Commencement Date. "Inventory" means the detailed schedule of Landlord fixtures, fittings, furniture, air-conditioning remotes, access cards, and keys delivered to the Tenant on handover. "Late Payment Charge" means the administrative recovery fee assessed in accordance with clause 6 on any overdue rental instalments.

All headings and sub-headings in this Lease are inserted for ease of reference and convenience only and shall not affect, limit, or modify the construction, meaning, or interpretation of any provision hereof. Words importing the singular number include the plural and vice versa. Any reference to an enactment or statutory provision includes any subordinate legislation made under it and any reference to any statute, enactment, or regulation shall be construed as a reference to that statute, enactment, or regulation as amended, consolidated, or re-enacted from time to time.

2. Term

The term of this Lease is thirty-six (36) months, commencing on 1 February 2027 (the "Commencement Date") and expiring on 31 January 2030 (the "Expiry Date"). The Tenant shall be granted possession of the Premises on the Commencement Date following execution of this Lease and clearance of the initial financial disbursements required hereunder. Possession shall be delivered in a clean and tenantable state accompanied by a joint entry inventory report signed by both authorized representatives.

3. Rent

The Tenant shall pay rent of QAR 9,800 (Nine Thousand Eight Hundred Qatari Riyals) per month, payable monthly in advance on the first day of each month. The annual rent is QAR 117,600. All payments shall be made free of any bank deductions, withholdings, or counterclaims. Payment shall be effected through direct bank transfer to the account nominated by the Landlord or by delivering thirty-six (36) post-dated cheques upon the execution of this Lease.

4. Security Deposit

On signing, the Tenant shall pay a security deposit of QAR 19,600, refundable within thirty (30) days of the end of the Lease, less any amounts properly deducted for unpaid rent or damage beyond fair wear and tear. The security deposit shall be retained by the Landlord without accrual of interest throughout the subsistence of this tenancy. In the event deductions are made at handover, an itemised schedule of repairs and receipts shall be furnished to the Tenant.

5. Rent Escalation

The monthly rent shall increase by five percent (5%) on each anniversary of the Commencement Date. The Landlord shall furnish written notice confirming the applicable escalated monthly rent at least thirty (30) days prior to each effective anniversary. The new rate shall apply automatically from the first day of each lease year.

6. Payment Method

The Tenant shall deliver thirty-six (36) post-dated cheques on or before the Commencement Date, each representing one monthly instalment of rent. Alternatively, subject to Landlord written approval, payment may be processed by monthly automated electronic bank standing instruction. In the event any cheque or transfer is dishonoured upon presentation, the Tenant shall settle the outstanding amount within forty-eight (48) hours alongside an administrative penalty of QAR 500.

7. Utilities

The Tenant shall be solely responsible for all electricity and water consumption charges billed by Kahramaa, all telecommunication and high-speed internet charges, and all district cooling charges associated with the Premises throughout the tenancy. The Tenant shall cause Kahramaa utility accounts to be transferred into the Tenant's name within seven (7) days of handover and shall deliver final clearance certificates prior to deposit refund.

8. Use

The Premises shall be used solely and exclusively as a private residential dwelling for the Tenant and immediate family members. No commercial, trade, or professional activities shall be carried on within the Premises. The Tenant shall not keep animals or pets without prior written consent and shall strictly adhere to building noise restrictions between 10:00 PM and 8:00 AM.

9. Maintenance

The Landlord is responsible for structural repairs and major equipment, including air-conditioning units and the water heater. The Tenant shall report defects promptly and keep the premises in good condition.

The Tenant shall be responsible for all minor routine maintenance, including replacing light bulbs, unblocking internal drains, and repairing damages caused by accidental misuse or neglect. The Tenant shall maintain all fixtures, electrical fittings, sanitary apparatus, and kitchen cabinetry in good working order throughout the term.

The Landlord shall provide semi-annual preventative servicing for the central air conditioning units, including filter washing, coil cleaning, and compressor inspection. The Tenant shall provide reasonable access during standard working hours to authorized maintenance personnel dispatched by the Landlord.

If an urgent maintenance issue occurs that threatens health, safety, or substantial damage to property, the Tenant shall immediately contact the 24-hour emergency maintenance line. The Landlord shall dispatch an emergency team within four (4) hours of notification.

10. Alterations

The Tenant shall make no structural alterations, additions, or major decorative changes to the Premises without prior written consent from the Landlord.

No partitioning walls, false ceilings, heavy shelving anchors, or structural drilling shall be permitted without architectural drawings submitted to and formally approved by the Landlord's engineering department. The Tenant shall bear all costs of remedial works required to restore the Premises to its handover condition.

11. Insurance

The Landlord maintains comprehensive property insurance covering the structural shell and common areas of the Building.

The Tenant is strongly advised and encouraged to obtain comprehensive personal contents and third-party liability insurance for all personal possessions kept within the Premises. The Landlord shall not be liable for loss, theft, water damage, or electrical surge damage to Tenant possessions, except where resulting directly from the Landlord's gross negligence or wilful misconduct.

12. Access

The Landlord or authorized agents shall have the right to enter the Premises at reasonable hours during the daytime upon giving at least twenty-four (24) hours' prior written notice for inspection, routine maintenance, or viewing by prospective buyers or tenants within sixty (60) days of Lease expiry.

In instances of bona fide emergency, such as gas leaks, severe water pipe bursts, or electrical fires, the Landlord or building security may enter the Premises immediately without prior notice to avert imminent danger to life or property.

13. Assignment and Subletting

The Tenant shall not assign, sublet, transfer, license, or share possession of the Premises or any part thereof to any third party without obtaining prior written approval from the Landlord.

Short-term holiday letting, Airbnb-style listings, and subletting to non-family occupants are strictly prohibited and constitute a material breach entitling immediate termination of this Lease without compensation.

14. Renewal

The Tenant may renew this Lease for a further twelve (12) months by giving written notice not less than sixty (60) days before the Expiry Date, on terms to be confirmed by the Landlord in writing. If no renewal notice is served within the prescribed window, the Landlord shall be entitled to place the Premises on the open leasing market.

15. Termination

Either party may terminate this Lease by giving two (2) months' written notice after the first twelve (12) months of the term. Early termination by the Tenant before that date requires payment of one (1) month's rent as compensation. The Tenant shall yield up the Premises on the termination date in broom-clean condition.

16. Default

If the Tenant fails to pay rent within fifteen (15) days of the due date, or commits any other material breach of this Lease not remedied within thirty (30) days of notice, the Landlord shall be entitled to terminate the Lease and re-enter the Premises in accordance with the laws of Qatar.

Termination under this clause shall not forfeit any accrued rights of the Landlord to claim arrears, interest, legal costs, or damages for loss of rental income until the Premises is re-let.

17. Notices

All notices under this Lease shall be in writing and delivered by hand, registered courier, or verified electronic mail to the official addresses stated herein.

Any notice delivered by hand or courier shall be deemed served upon delivery, and any notice transmitted via electronic mail shall be deemed served on the next Working Day following transmission with proof of delivery.

18. Force Majeure

Neither party shall be liable for failure to perform obligations where such failure arises from circumstances beyond reasonable control, including acts of God, civil commotion, war, governmental orders, epidemic restrictions, or major structural catastrophe affecting the Building.

If the Premises becomes totally uninhabitable due to an event of force majeure, rental payments shall abate until such time as habitability is restored, or either party may terminate the Lease upon thirty (30) days' written notice without liability.

19. Governing Law

This Lease shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Qatar, in particular Law No. 4 of 2008 Concerning the Leasing of Premises and any statutory modifications or re-enactments thereof.

20. Dispute Resolution

Any dispute arising out of or in connection with this Lease that cannot be resolved amicably within thirty (30) days shall be submitted to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Rental Dispute Resolution Committee at the Ministry of Municipality in Doha, Qatar. Both parties submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the said Committee and waive any objections regarding forum conveniens.

21. Entire Agreement

This Lease constitutes the entire understanding between the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior agreements, representations, and negotiations. No amendment shall be binding unless executed in writing by both parties.

22. Severability

If any provision of this Lease is determined to be invalid, illegal, or unenforceable by any competent court or arbitral body, such provision shall be severed from the remainder of this Lease, which shall continue in full force and effect to the maximum extent permitted by applicable law.
